Chicago

Welcome to Chicago, the city of the Big Shoulders! Why do people call it that? Because it is big and modern. I went to this amazing city last vacation, let me introduce it to you!

Winds from Lake Michigan blow into Chicago all year around. People also call Chicago the “Windy City”. The Lake offers beautiful scenery too. People can go boating or swimming.

In Chicago, there are some fun places for nature-lovers. You can watch space closely at Adler Planetarium. It feels so real, and you may think that you are actually in space.

You can feel the calm and beauty of the deep sea at Shedd Aquarium. There are fish shows from time to time.

Are you a sport-lover? Chicago is also the right place for you. It is home to Chicago Bulls, an amazing basketball team. It is also home to Chicago Bears, a wonderful American football team.

If you love fashion, you can come to the Magnificent Mile. It is the best shopping center in Chicago. My mum bought many pretty dresses there.

What? You love eating best. Chicago also has something for you. Do they make your mouth water? I tasted my favorite food---fried chicken wings and hamburgers.

You can find anything in Chicago. Natural beauty, lovely animals, great sports teams, fashion and amazing food! Come and visit Chicago today!
